

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1125.30 Receiver may destroy records.

Effective: January 1, 1997

Legislation: House Bill 538 - 121st General Assembly

---

Subject to the approval of the court, the receiver may destroy the records of the bank after the receiver determines there is no further need for them. However, the receiver shall not destroy the records earlier than six months after the date the bank is declared dissolved by the court.

---