

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2105.02 Construction of living and died.

Effective: May 16, 2002

Legislation: House Bill 242 - 124th General Assembly

When, in Chapter 2105. of the Revised Code, a person is described as living, it means that the person was living at the time of the death of the intestate from whom the estate came, and when a person is described as having died, it means that the person died before such intestate.
