

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2107.05 Incorporation by reference.

Effective: January 13, 2012

Legislation: Senate Bill 124 - 129th General Assembly

An existing document, book, record, or memorandum may be incorporated in a will by reference, if referred to as being in existence at the time the will is executed. That document, book, record, or memorandum shall be deposited in the probate court when the will is probated or within thirty days after the will is probated, unless the court grants an extension of time for good cause shown. A copy may be substituted for the original document, book, record, or memorandum if the copy is certified to be correct by a person authorized to take acknowledgments.
