

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2107.11 Jurisdiction to probate.

Effective: January 13, 2012

Legislation: Senate Bill 124 - 129th General Assembly

(A) A will shall be admitted to probate:

- (1) In the county in this state in which the testator was domiciled at the time of the testator's death;
- (2) In any county of this state where any real property or personal property of the testator is located if, at the time of the testator's death, the testator was not domiciled in this state, and provided that the will has not previously been admitted to probate in this state or in the state of the testator's domicile;
- (3) In the county of this state in which a probate court rendered a judgment declaring that the will was valid and in which the will was filed with the probate court.

(B) For the purpose of division (A)(2) of this section, intangible personal property is located in the place where the instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock, or chose in action is located or if there is no instrument of that nature where the debtor resides.
