

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2307.18 Officer acting under process may interplead.

Effective: July 6, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 108 - 124th General Assembly

A judicial officer against whom an action is brought to recover personal property taken by the officer on execution, or for the proceeds of such property sold by the officer, upon exhibiting to the court the process under which the officer acted, with the officer's affidavit that the property was taken or sold by the officer under such process, may have the benefit of Civil Rule 22, against the party in whose favor the execution issued.
