

Ohio Revised Code Section 2329.86 Finding of judge.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

If the jury summoned under section 2329.84 of the Revised Code finds that the right to the property, or a part of it, is in the claimant, and the plaintiff in execution within three days after the trial tenders to the officer having the property in his custody, a bond in double the amount of its value as assessed by the jury, with good and sufficient sureties, payable to the claimant, to the effect that they will pay all damages sustained by reason of the detention or sale of the property, the officer shall deliver such bond to the claimant, sell the property as if no trial of the right thereto had taken place, and shall not be liable to the claimant therefor.
