

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2335.23 Costs to be taxed separately - costs in court of appeals.

Effective: January 9, 1961

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 104th General Assembly

In transcripts given by clerks and judges of county courts, the costs of each party shall be stated and set forth separately. In causes taken from the court of common pleas to the court of appeals on appeal, the clerk of the court of common pleas shall certify to the court of appeals the costs of each party, separately. The clerk of the court of appeals shall, in like manner, certify in the mandate to the court of common pleas, for execution, the costs in such court of appeals of each party, separately. The costs of the losing party in the court of appeals as well as the costs of the successful party shall, except as provided in section 2335.22 of the Revised Code, be collected, by process, from the court of common pleas in the manner prescribed in section 2335.21 of the Revised Code.
