

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3119.87 Notifying agency of reason why support order should terminate.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

The parent who is the residential parent and legal custodian of a child for whom a child support order is issued or the person who otherwise has custody of a child for whom a child support order is issued immediately shall notify, and the obligor under a child support order may notify, the child support enforcement agency administering the child support order of any reason for which the child support order should terminate. With respect to a court child support order, a willful failure to notify the child support enforcement agency as required by this division is contempt of court.
