

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3119.88 Reasons for which child support order should terminate.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

Reasons for which a child support order should terminate include all of the following:

- (A) The child's attainment of the age of majority if the child no longer attends an accredited high school on a full-time basis and the child support order requires support to continue past the age of majority only if the child continuously attends such a high school after attaining that age;
 - (B) The child ceasing to attend an accredited high school on a full-time basis after attaining the age of majority, if the child support order requires support to continue past the age of majority only if the child continuously attends such a high school after attaining that age;
 - (C) The child's death;
 - (D) The child's marriage;
 - (E) The child's emancipation;
 - (F) The child's enlistment in the armed services;
 - (G) The child's deportation;
 - (H) Change of legal custody of the child.
