

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3121.33 Notices and orders final and enforceable by court.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

The withholding or deduction notices and other orders issued under sections 3121.03, 3121.04 to 3121.06, and 3121.12 of the Revised Code, and the notices that require the obligor to notify the child support enforcement agency administering the support order of any change in the obligor's employment status or of any other change in the status of the obligor's assets, are final and enforceable by the court.
