

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3123.27 Investigating account.

Effective: March 22, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 180 - 123rd General Assembly

The child support enforcement agency shall, no later than five business days after information is entered into the case registry under section 3123.25 of the Revised Code, investigate and determine the amount of funds in the account that is available to satisfy the obligor's arrearages under a support order. The financial institution shall cooperate with the agency's investigation.
