

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3314.083 Deducting excess costs of providing special education and related services to student with a disability.

Effective: September 29, 2013

Legislation: House Bill 59 - 130th General Assembly

If the department of education pays a joint vocational school district under division (C)(3) of section 3317.16 of the Revised Code for excess costs of providing special education and related services to a student with a disability who is enrolled in a community school, as calculated under division (C)(1) of that section, the department shall deduct the amount of that payment from the amount calculated for payment to the community school under section 3314.08 of the Revised Code.
