

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3325.07 Programs to enable deaf and hard of hearing children to construct pattern of communication; fees.

Effective: September 17, 2014

Legislation: House Bill 487 - 130th General Assembly

The state board of education in carrying out this section and division (A) of section 3325.06 of the Revised Code shall, insofar as practicable, plan, present, and carry into effect an educational program by means of any of the following methods of instruction:

- (A) Classes for parents of deaf or hard of hearing children of preschool age;
- (B) A nursery school where parent and child would enter the nursery school as a unit;
- (C) Correspondence course;
- (D) Personal consultations and interviews;
- (E) Day-care or child development courses;
- (F) Summer enrichment courses;
- (G) By such other means or methods as the superintendent of the state school for the deaf deems advisable that would permit a deaf or hard of hearing child of preschool age to construct a pattern of communication at an early age.

The superintendent may allow children who are not deaf or hard of hearing to participate in the methods of instruction described in divisions (A) to (G) of this section as a means to assist deaf or hard of hearing children to construct a pattern of communication. The superintendent shall establish policies and procedures regarding the participation of children who are not deaf or hard of hearing.

The superintendent may establish reasonable fees for participation in the methods of instruction described in divisions (A) to (G) of this section to defray the costs of carrying them out. The
