

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3332.092 Repaying instructional grants for ineligible students.

Effective: October 3, 2023

Legislation: House Bill 33

Any school subject to this chapter receiving money under section 3333.122 of the Revised Code on behalf of a student who is determined by the state board of career colleges and schools to be ineligible under such section because the program in which the student is enrolled does not lead to an associate or baccalaureate degree, shall be liable to the state for the amount specified in section 3333.122 of the Revised Code. The state board of career colleges and schools shall suspend the certificate of registration of a school receiving money under section 3333.122 of the Revised Code for such ineligible student until such time as the money is repaid to the department of higher education.
