

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4123.38 Contributions to public insurance fund.

Effective: December 1, 1992

Legislation: Senate Bill 192 - 119th General Assembly

Every employer mentioned in division (B)(1) of section 4123.01 of the Revised Code, except for boards of county hospital trustees that are self-insurers under section 4123.35 of the Revised Code, shall contribute to the public insurance fund the amount of money determined by the administrator of workers' compensation, and the manner of determining contributions and the classifications of employers is as provided in sections 4123.39 to 4123.41 and 4123.48 of the Revised Code.
