

Ohio Revised Code Section 4141.22 Divulging information.

Effective: July 1, 2000

Legislation: House Bill 470 - 123rd General Assembly

(A) No person shall disclose any information that was maintained by the director of job and family services or furnished to the director by employers or employees pursuant to this chapter, unless such disclosure is permitted under section 4141.21 of the Revised Code.

(B) No person in the employ of the director of job and family services or a county family services agency or a workforce development agency, or who has been in the employ of the director or those agencies, at any time, shall divulge any information maintained by or furnished to the director under this chapter and secured by the person while so employed, in respect to the transactions, property, business, or mechanical, chemical, or other industrial process of any person, firm, corporation, association, or partnership to any person other than the director or other employees of the department of job and family services or a county family services agency or workforce development agency, as required by the person's duties, or to other persons as authorized by the director under section 4141.43 of the Revised Code.

Whoever violates this section shall be disqualified from holding any appointment or employment by the director or a county family services agency or workforce development agency.
