

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4707.14 Definite place of business.

Effective: May 6, 2005

Legislation: Senate Bill 209 - 125th General Assembly

(A) Each person licensed under this chapter shall have a definite place of business in this state.

(B) Except as provided in division (C) of this section, if the licensee is a nonresident, it is not necessary for the licensee to maintain an active place of business within this state if the licensee maintains such a place of business in the state where the licensee is a resident.

(C) A nonresident who is licensed as a special auctioneer under section 4707.071 of the Revised Code shall have a definite place of business within the state and shall not conduct auctions anywhere else in the state other than the licensee's place of business.
