

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5101.64 Referring cases of abuse.

Effective: November 15, 1981

Legislation: House Bill 694 - 114th General Assembly

Any person who requests or consents to receive protective services shall receive such services only after an investigation and determination of a need for protective services, which investigation shall be performed in the same manner as the investigation of a report pursuant to sections 5101.62 and 5101.63 of the Revised Code. If the person withdraws consent, the protective services shall be terminated.
