

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5103.41 Designating training regions.

Effective: September 21, 2006

Legislation: Senate Bill 238 - 126th General Assembly

Prior to the beginning of the fiscal biennium that first follows October 5, 2000, the department of job and family services, in consultation with the Ohio child welfare training program steering committee, shall designate eight training regions in the state. The department, at times it selects, shall review the composition of the training regions. The committee, at times it selects, shall also review the training regions' composition and provide the department recommendations on changes. The department may change the composition of the training regions as the department considers necessary. Each training region shall contain only one regional training center established and maintained under section 5103.42 of the Revised Code.
