Effective: September 17, 2014

Legislation: Senate Bill 43 - 130th General Assembly

The department of mental health and addiction services may examine into, with or without expert assistance, the question of the mental and physical condition of any person committed to or involuntarily confined in any hospital for the mentally ill, or restrained of liberty at any place within this state by reason of alleged mental illness and may order and compel the discharge of any such person who is not a mentally ill person subject to court order as defined in division (B) of section 5122.01 of the Revised Code and direct what disposition shall be made of the person.
