

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5123.83 Civil and public or private employment rights.

Effective: July 1, 1991

Legislation: House Bill 569 - 118th General Assembly

No person shall be deprived of any civil right, or public or private employment, solely by reason of his having received services, voluntarily or involuntarily, for mental retardation or a developmental disability. Any person in custody, voluntarily or involuntarily, under the provisions of this chapter, retains all rights not specifically denied him under this or any other chapter of the Revised Code.
