

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5731.46 Fees of sheriff and other officers.

Effective: July 1, 1968

Legislation: Senate Bill 326 - 107th General Assembly

The county treasurer shall keep an account showing the amount of all taxes and interest received by him under Chapter 5731. of the Revised Code. On the twenty-fifth day of February and the twentieth day of August of each year he shall settle with the county auditor for all such taxes and interest so received at the time of making such settlement, not included in any preceding settlement, showing for what estate, by whom, and when paid. At each such settlement the auditor shall allow to the treasurer and himself, on the money so collected and accounted for by him, their respective fees, at the percentages allowed by law. The correctness thereof, together with a statement of the fees allowed at such settlement, and the fees and expenses allowed to the officers under such chapter shall be certified by the auditor.
