

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5815.16 Duty of attorney to third parties.

Effective: January 1, 2007

Legislation: House Bill 416 - 126th General Assembly

(A) Absent an express agreement to the contrary, an attorney who performs legal services for a fiduciary, by reason of the attorney performing those legal services for the fiduciary, has no duty or obligation in contract, tort, or otherwise to any third party to whom the fiduciary owes fiduciary obligations.

(B) As used in this section, "fiduciary" means a trustee under an express trust or an executor or administrator of a decedent's estate.
